Shopee Unit Economics

Is Shopee's growth becoming more profitable? | Sea Ltd 6-K filings, Q1 2019 - Q2 2026, US$

Key findings

1 Take rate doubled

Fees + ads rose from 5.2% of GMV (Q3 22) to 11.2% (Q2 26). Logistics fell to 1.8%.

2 Growth mix is shifting

37% of Q2 26 marketplace revenue growth came from a higher take rate, up from 11% a year earlier.

3 Profit stays thin

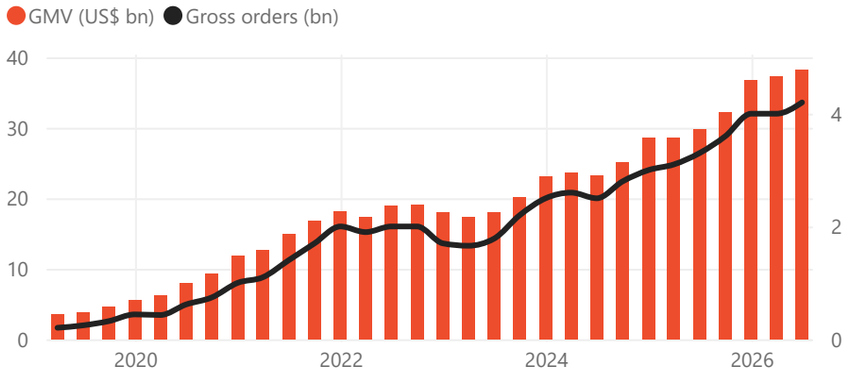

Adj. EBITDA is 0.67% of GMV, about US$0.06 an order, below Q1 23's 1.2%. Sales & marketing grew 57% YoY.

4 Profit can be switched off

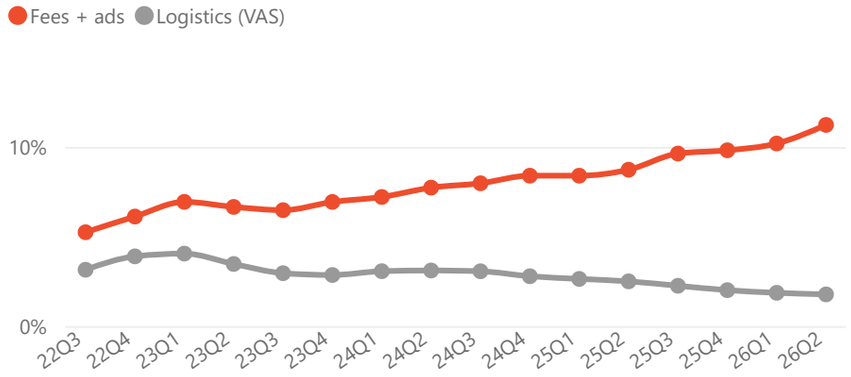

Shopee went back to losses in Q3 23 - Q2 24 when Sea chose to reinvest.

GMV, last 4 quarters	Gross orders, last 4 quarters	Core take rate (fees + ads)	Adj. EBITDA % of GMV	Adj. EBITDA per order
US$144.5 bn	15.8 bn	11.2%	0.67%	US$0.061
+29% vs prior 4 quarters	AOV US$9.12 per order	Q2 26, was 5.2% in Q3 22	Q2 26, peak 1.20% in Q1 23	Q2 26 adj. EBITDA / gross orders

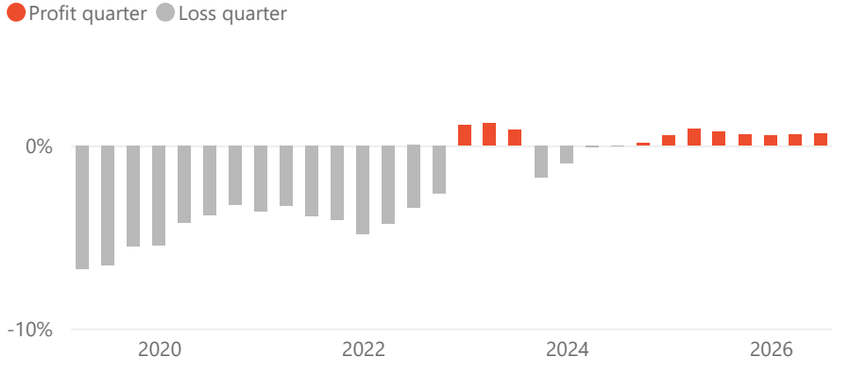

GMV and orders keep compounding

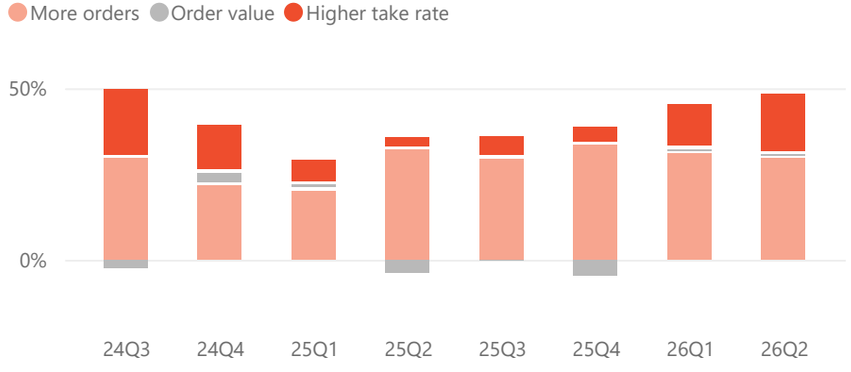

Shopee takes more in fees and ads, less from logistics

...but profit per dollar sold stays thin

Monee Credit & the FY2026 Target

Is fast loan growth healthy, and can Shopee reach US$1 bn adj. EBITDA in 2026? | US$

Key findings

1 Loan book x3.6

US$3.1 bn (Q4 23) to US$11.1 bn (Q2 26), incl. off-book loans.

2 Margin traded for growth

Monee adj. EBITDA margin fell from 31% to 21% over the same period.

3 Seasoning check

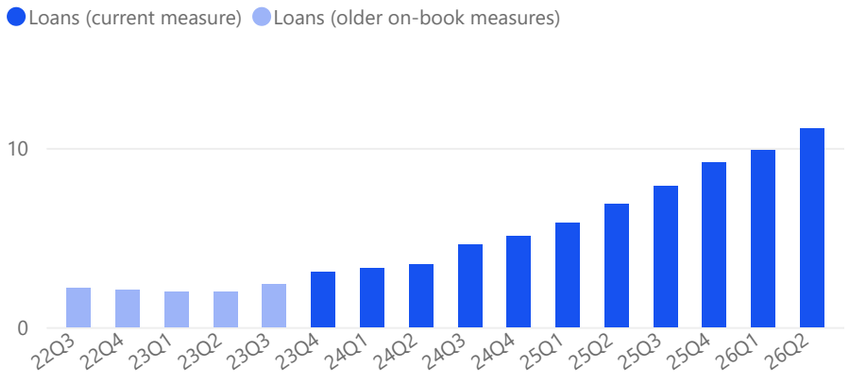

Reported NPL 1.0%. Divided by the book a year earlier it is about 1.6-2.0%, flat, not improving.

4 US$1 bn is tight

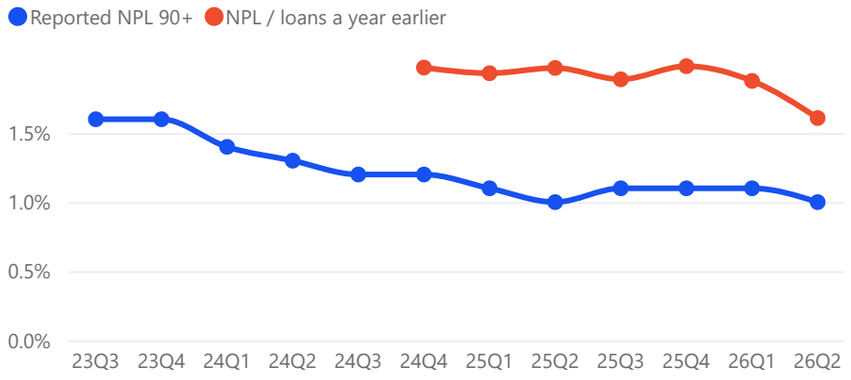

H1 26 gave US$479 m. Base case US$1,043 m; bear US$962 m; if H2 repeats 2025's dip, US$856 m.

Monee loans outstanding	Loan growth, YoY	NPL 90+ days, reported	NPL vs book a year earlier	Monee adj. EBITDA margin
US$11.1 bn	+61%	1.0%	1.6%	20.6%
Q2 26, incl. off-book loans	vs Q2 25, same loan measure	past due 90+ days, Q2 26	NPL / loan book a year earlier	Q2 26, was 31.4% in Q4 23

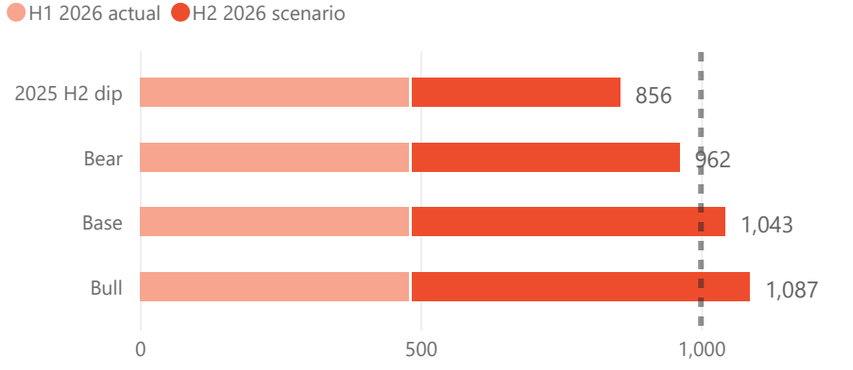

Monee's loan book has more than tripled

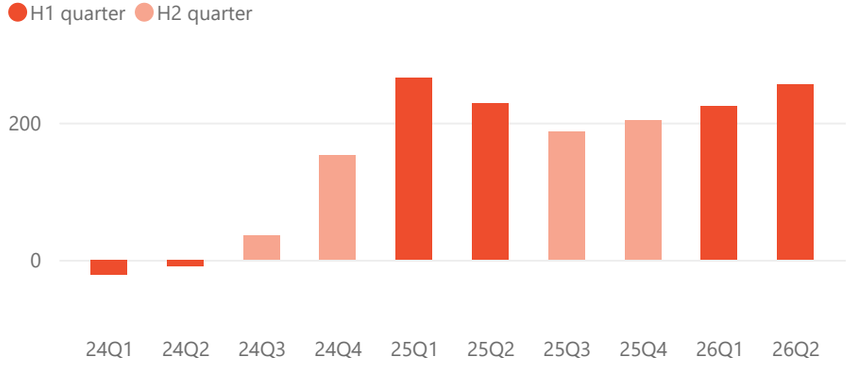

Reported NPL falls; the seasoned ratio does not
